Frontiers of Philosophy in China

- A peer-reviewed academic journal
- The only English-language journal of philosophy published in China
- Supported by Chinese Fund for the Humanities and Social Sciences
Aims & Scope

Frontiers of Philosophy in China (FPC) aims to disseminate new scholarly achievements in the field of broadly defined philosophy, and promote philosophical researches of the highest level by publishing peer-reviewed academic articles that facilitate intensive or extensive communication and cooperation between philosophers in China and abroad. It covers nearly all main branches of philosophy, with priorities given to original works on Chinese philosophy or in comparative studies of Chinese philosophy and other kinds of philosophy in the world.

Call for Papers

You are cordially invited to submit research articles, review articles, or book reviews to FPC. Submitted manuscripts must be original, and must not be submitted simultaneously to any other publication outlet.

Manuscripts should be submitted to submissionbjb@126.com. For book reviews, please contact Prof. WEN Haiming, Book Review Editor of FPC, at wenhaiming@gmail.com.

Submissions are expected to be in full accordance with the format style of FPC, which can be either downloaded from the FPC’s webpage (www.brill.nl/fphc), or acquired from Dr. SUN Haifang, Managing Editor of FPC (sunhf@hep.com.cn). Some basic guidelines are as follows:

1. The length of the articles should not exceed 8,000 words, including footnotes and bibliography. An abstract of 150–200 words and 3–6 keywords should be provided. Book reviews should be within 2,500 words.

2. Chinese terms and titles of Chinese texts, on their first appearances, should mainly be written in the following format: English translation(pinyin characters), e.g. virtue(德); “On the Main Points of the Six Schools” (“Lun Liujia Yaozhi” 论六家要旨); History of Chinese Philosophy (Zhongguo Zhexueshi 中国哲学史). The subsequent appearances should be either in English or in pinyin, and the style should be consistent throughout the article.

3. Citations in the text and in footnotes should follow the author–date–page format, for example, (Legge 1991, 133). References at the end of the text should be listed in the following format:

4. The sources of financial support for the research, and the contributions of colleagues or institutions should be acknowledged. Acknowledgements should be provided between the text and the list of references.
