

The First “Ruist (Confucian) Friends From Afar” Retreat in North America

1-3rd July, 2016.
Marsh Chapel, Boston University.

Topic: “The Past, Present and Future of Ruism (Confucianism) in the United States”

Schedule

Day One: Friday

5:30-6:00 (pm) Arrival and Check-in

6:00-7:00 Community Dinner (Boston University, Marsh Chapel, Marsh Room)

7:00-7:05 Welcome Speech: Bin Song (Boston University, Marsh Chapel, Robinson Chapel)

7:05-7:15 Ceremony of Heaven-Worship and Confucius-Veneration (Robinson Chapel)

An American landscape painting will be hung on the front wall, and a little statue (or portrait) of Confucius placed at the side. Each member who wishes to participate will place incense on the little altar located in front of the statue (or portrait) of Confucius, and then bow to Tian (天, heaven/nature) in the direction of the painting which will thereby be ‘witnessed’ by Confucius. There are no strict rules for bowing. If friends want to bow to Confucius, too, this can occur after bowing to Tian.
