Progressive East Asian Philosophy

2025 | 0828

2025 | 0829

What does it mean to pursue progress from within East Asian philosophical traditions? And how might they offer insight into ongoing global conversations around social reform, ethical responsibility, political transformation, and justice?

This year's gathering focuses on how these traditions—both classical and contemporary—can contribute to our understanding of progress in practical philosophy.

Keynote Speakers:

Heisook Kim (Ewha Womans University)

Stephen C. Angle (Wesleyan University)
